

2018 212° Leadership Conference

Registration Deadline: January 11, 2019

PURPOSE

212° – the temperature at which water boils – will focus on taking students to the boiling point of leadership. At 211° water is extremely hot, but just one more degree gets us to the next level. This conference focuses on student development. Students will be challenged to push the limits. Themes for this conference include: Virtues, growth and collaboration.

This conference is sponsored by U.S. Army, as a special project of the National FFA Foundation.

ELIGIBILITY

While the conference is open to all high school FFA members, the curriculum is intended for 9th-10th grade.

CANCELLATION POLICY

Fees are non-refundable unless cancellations are made 48 hours in advance to check-in. All payments are due at time of check in. If payment is not received at check-in, a credit card will be necessary to secure conference attendance.

REGISTRATION

Registration should be completed by the FFA advisor using the online registration form link provided. Registration must be completed for each person attending the conference, including advisors and chaperones. Registration will open approximately thirty (30) days prior to the event and will close two weeks prior to the event.

CHAPERONE POLICY

All students must be accompanied by a designated school district representative. In the event that the designated representative is not the FFA advisor, a chaperone designation letter from the school principal is required at the time of check-in. It is imperative that the letter specify the name of the chaperone and include the principal's signature. If your designated school district representative is another FFA advisor from your county, it is imperative that all parties are aware before arriving at the conference.

DRESS CODE

Students should be in official dress for the opening of the conference. Students will need business casual clothing for the remainder of the conference. Students should arrive in official dress as rooms may not be available at the start of the event.

REQUIRED FORMS

Florida FFA requires that each student complete and submit the Florida FFA Permission and Emergency Medical Form, including notary signature, for each overnight event. This form can be found on the Florida FFA website at <http://www.flaffa.org/wp-content/uploads/2017/01/permissionform.pdf>. Please bring completed form with you to the conference. Please do not fax or send permission forms prior to the event.
